Start-to-Finish Books

Strengthen reading fluency and comprehension of students with a variety of start-to-finish books. Students will practice reading fluently and with comprehension using multiple text and electronic supports.

These highly interesting, age-appropriate stories are for older students, ages 9-17, who are more than two grades behind in reading or failed readers. The computer format allows students functioning below a second-grade level to read these books. See below for titles included in the loan bank.
